SUNDAY OBLIGATION

The Bishops of Scotland have reinstated the Sunday obligation, after postponing it before Christmas due to the Omicron variant. Catholics in Scotland will be expected to attend Sunday Mass from the 6th March.

In a statement from the Bishops' Conference, Bishop Hugh Gilbert said: "Given the easing of restrictions in every other walk of life, the Church looks forward to welcoming Catholics back to Holy Mass."

The Sunday obligation does not apply to those 'who are sick and their carers or to those aware of their greater vulnerability to the virus.'

SOCIAL COMMITTEE ~ TEA DANCE AND RAFFLE

Tickets for the tea dance on Wed 23rd February 1.30-5.30pm are still available, priced £10. This includes afternoon tea, glass of prosecco and a raffle! There will also be a bar.

Thank you to everyone who has donated to the raffle, we have some fantastic prizes including bottles of spirits and wine, a brand new Radley handbag, Moulton and Brown and The White Company toiletries to name just a few of the fantastic prizes on offer. Raffle tickets are available from the stall as well as being available to buy at the tea dance. All proceeds towards the Building Fund.

SICK LIST

In order for us to comply with the Data Protection Act we are unable to print names in the sick list in the bulletin unless permission has been given by the sick person. There is a box to tick on the mass offering envelopes for this purpose. If it hasn't been ticked then unfortunately we can't print the person's name. Mass will still be offered for them.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Sr Anna Christi OP will give an introduction to the catechesis of the Good Shepherd on Monday 14th February at 7pm in the church. Fr Mournian is particularly keen for the parents/carers of our young people to attend as he is hoping this could operate as an after school club and would be keen to hear your thoughts on this method of teaching the faith to our children.

PRAYING WITH SACRED ART

Sr Imelda Anne OP will give a presentation in the church on Tuesday 15th February at 7pm on praying with sacred art, followed by Solemn Benediction. This looks like being a great talk, Sr Imelda is a wonderful speaker. All welcome.
